

Anglican Church Women - Diocese of Algoma

Mission Statement:

The mission of the Anglican Church Women in the Diocese of Algoma is to unite all women in promoting the love of Christ with their time, talents and resources.

Greetings to all Anglican Women of the Diocese of Algoma:

*Do not remember the former things, or consider the things that are old.
I am about to do a new thing, now it springs forth....* Isaiah 43

This is from the lessons of the fourth Sunday of Lent and I feel they are so appropriate to the Diocesan ACW Annual for 2010. Your executive looks forward to being in Thunder Bay where many traditions of ACW have been developed over the last 43 years and with the traditions we can move forward to newer ways. I do hope you will like the changes to the business part of the conference.

This will be the first official visit of Bishop Stephen Andrews to our ACW Annual since his Consecration and Investiture last June. Fawna Andrews, Honourary President of Algoma ACW will be taking an active role and sharing some duties with me. We are pleased to have Fiona Brownlea, Council of the North, who will bring us an update on the work and needs of the North; so appropriate to our theme of Reaching Out. I am sure we will find her message challenging and informative. It is our pleasure to welcome and introduce to you The Rev. Dr. Jay Koyle, Dr. Koyle has been appointed by the Bishop as the Congregational Development Officer for the Diocese. I have met him and I promise you he will be informative and fun.

Your executive, Pat, Shirley, Donna, Mary and I look forward to meeting everyone in Thunder Bay, for ministry, fun and fellowship.

Jacque
