

Diocesan Zoom Gathering for
The National Day of Truth and Reconciliation

Friday, September 30, 2022

7pm

Prayers * Discussion * Compline

Reflection by The Most Rev'd Anne Germond*

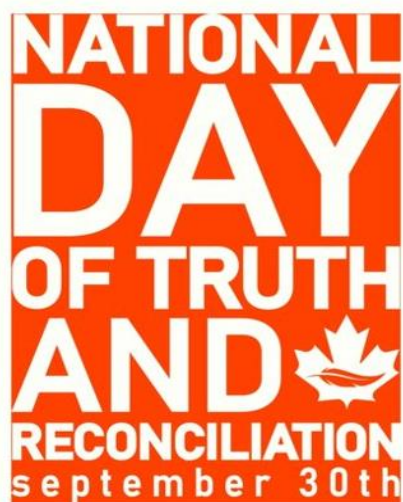

*There will also be a pre-recorded video presentation on reconciliation that was given by Bishop Te Kitoi at the Lambeth Plenary on Reconciliation. In addition, we will have the opportunity for a breakout room conversation.

Note: People have the option of gathering at Emmaus Anglican Church to watch the Zoom liturgy live together. Refreshments to follow in the hall. If you plan to attend in person, please notify The Rev'd Susan Montague Koyle:

The Zoom link will be available through your incumbent. If you do not have an incumbent, it will be available through your territorial archdeacon. Please send an email to the appropriate person with the subject line: Request for Zoom link for Friday Liturgy. Due to the need to know numbers for the Zoom platform:

Deadline to register is noon on Friday, September 16th

In love and peace, let us walk together in God's Kingdom
