

Canon I-2: SIGNING OFFICERS

One of the churchwardens and one of the other designated signing officers of a congregation shall be required to sign on behalf of that congregation. The designated signing officers of a congregation are its churchwardens, its incumbent, its treasurer, (if one is appointed), and such other members of the congregation who are appointed by the vestry.