

For this reason I bow my knees before the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth takes its name. I pray that, according to the riches of God's glory, you may be strengthened in your inner being with power through the Spirit, and that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith, as you are being rooted and grounded in love. I pray that you may have the power to comprehend, with all the saints, what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, so that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.

~Ephesians 3.14-19

"We are particularly blessed in that hour by hour, and day by day, the Synod is being upheld through the ministry of the Anglican Fellowship of Prayer.

Join us in prayers that the Holy Spirit will come and hover, settle and abide with us, to grace and guide, enlighten and lead."

Praying for Our Beloved Church

At Anglican Fellowship of Prayer, our prayers are non-partisan and apolitical, asking that the church will faithfully respond to God's will through the guidance of the Holy Spirit. At this time in the life of our church, we have invited our ecclesiastical provinces, through their bishops, to be intentional about praying for one day of these meetings: July 11 Canada, July 12 Ontario, July 14 Rupert's Land, and July 15 British Columbia/Yukon. We invite the entire country to be immersed in prayer on July 13, invoking the discernment of the Spirit for the election of our new Primate. May God bless our beloved church!

Praying for you, and with you

The Anglican Fellowship of Prayer exists to support, serve, and encourage prayer. We believe in the power of prayer at all times, and delight as the entirety of our lives are infused with this divine gift.

Especially at this time, as you are gathered discerning God's will at General Synod, members of the Anglican Fellowship of Prayer are holding you in prayer. Several times each day, from across the country, your name is being held up to God.

We are also here to pray with you; we invite you to submit your prayers for us to pray with you in two formats (which will be monitored hourly during Synod):

Publicly on our website at www.anglicanprayer.org

Privately and confidentially at PrayerGS2019@gmail.com

We ask God's abundant blessings on your ministry at General Synod, and we are pleased to offer our prayerful support to you during this time.
